FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

State Route 130 (SR-130)/San Antonio Valley Road between Quimby Road in Santa Clara County to Stanislaus County Line reopens to local traffic; Highway remains closed to through traffic until Monday, September 14, 2020

SANTA CLARA COUNTY- Caltrans and the Santa Clara Sheriff's Office has reopened the section of State Route 130 (SR-130)/ San Antonio Valley Road between Quimby Road in Santa Clara County to the Stanislaus County line to local traffic only with the assistance of California Highway Patrol(CHP) and other first responders.

SR-130/ San Antonio Valley Road will remain closed to through traffic until Monday, September 14, 2020 as crews from different agencies will continue fire clean up along State Route 130 within the area that was affected by the SCU Lightning Complex.

The Santa Clara Sheriff's Office lifted the evacuation orders in that area at 10:00 AM on Saturday, September 5, 2020, which has allowed residents to re-enter their homes.

Local traffic is advised to expect delays due to one-way traffic controls in the fire impacted region as crews continue fire damage cleanup and repair work.
